

This barn-style home offers timeless charm with board-and-batten cladding and a stone-accented base for added character. The single-gable roofline frames a welcoming stone-detailed entry. Inside, the living, kitchen, and dining areas align with the sun's path, opening to covered outdoor living for year-round enjoyment. A separate laundry adds practicality, and the garage is designed for easy expansion into a double or triple. Crafted for comfort, flexibility, and effortless living.
